

Consumer Federation of America is a nonprofit association of nearly 300 consumer organizations. Established in 1968, CFA's mission is to advance the consumer interest through research, education and advocacy. IDTheftInfo.org is intended to increase public knowledge about identity theft and to encourage companies that provide identity theft services to follow good practices. It was developed with input from CFA's Identity Theft Service Best Practices Working Group, which consists of consumer advocates and identity theft service providers. CFA is solely responsible for the content on this site unless it is identified as coming from other sources.

Consumer Federation of America's Identity Theft Service Best Practices Working Group

These members of CFA's Identity theft Service Best Practices Working Group provided input in developing the Best Practices for Identity Theft Services

, Nine Things to Check When Shopping for Identity Theft Services

, My company's had a data breach, now what? 7 questions to ask when considering identity theft services

and the IDTheftInfo.org website.*

Nonprofits/Advocates/Government Agencies	Companies
Call for Action	AllClear ID
Consumer Action	CyberScout™
Consumer Federation of America	Equifax Consumer Services
Mari Frank, Esq.	Experian (ProtectMyID)
Privacy Rights Clearinghouse	LifeShield Fraud Protection

ID Experts
ID Watchdog
Intersections Inc.
Kroll
Merchants Information Solutions

Worldwide Benefit Services (IDTheft Assist)
Zander Identity Theft Services

* This list is not an endorsement by CFA for any specific company or product.